

Ayden Roberts - Jones
Old Course Hotel & The Duke's
Head PGA Professional
PGA AAT Professional

Throughout his career, Ayden has continually developed his coaching style, taking the best from the creative influences he has experienced himself. At grass roots, Ayden began his Professional career at the age of 18 years, learning his early teaching skills from Past Welsh International Coach David Llewelyn.

With a move to St Andrews in 2002 Ayden joined the team of The Old Course Hotel Golf Resort & Spa. With coaching always his passion, he quickly worked on structuring and developing The Duke's golf coaching offerings.

Ayden created clear pathways for any golfer to improve their game and to encourage new golfers to the game.

Junior golf is at the heart of The Duke's D.N.A. where the Academy has grown from strength to strength. Ayden and his team are always looking for new ways to introduce and enhance golfers' skills in technique, etiquette and discipline for the game.

'Keeping the learning style simple encourages creativity in the game as it can be played in many wonderful ways'